Test 7

Read the passage and answer the questions.

It was a beautiful, warm Saturday in October, and Sanduni's family had decided to have a picnic. Sanduni was helping her mother to get the picnic table ready for their lunch when the two of her married sisters arrived.

"Happy Birthday, mother!" they said as they handed over their brightly coloured birthday presents.

- ⑤ Sanduni had totally forgotten that it was her mother's fifty-fourth birthday. She quickly decided to find a present that would show her mother how much she loved. She ran upstairs to her bedroom, pulled her piggy bank down from its shelf, and opened it. No coins fell out, but as she put her fingers inside, she felt a single piece of paper. It was a hundred rupee note.

She picked it and ran to the gift store next to the shopping centre. As she looked at the pretty dishes

- ⑩ and other household items, she realized that her hundred rupees wouldn't be enough to buy what she wanted. Suddenly she saw a pretty red flower. It was just the price; ninety nine rupees! She took the flower to the cashier and gave the hundred rupee note.

"Is that all the money you have?" asked the cashier.

"Yes", she said, "just enough to buy this present for my mother." "I'm sorry dear. This gift costs 5

- ⑮ more than what you have. With sales tax, it costs 108 rupees."

Sanduni felt tears gathering in her eyes. She didn't understand sales tax, but all she understood was that she wouldn't be able to give that beautiful present to her mother.

Test 15

Read the following text and complete the tasks given below.

- ① Peter was born in Southern England in 1812 when industrial revolution in England was well underway. As thousands of factories were open for business, people left their farms for the cities. But their dreams of making more money and improving their lives always did not come true. Men, women and even children often exchanged back-breaking work in the field for the boredom and danger of factory work.
- ② Peter's family moved to London when he was five. His father, John, worked as a clerk, so he was better off than many people in London. But with his large family and love of entertaining he and his wife constantly lived beyond their means. When Peter was twelve, John was arrested for failing to pay a debt. He was sent to debtors' prison where people were kept until they could pay back the money they owed.
- ③ Peter was taken out of school and forced to work in a shoe polish factory; wrapping and pasting labels on bottles. He worked from dawn to dark, six days a week in a darkroom, listening to rats squeak beneath the rotting floor boards. His father finally inherited some money, settled his debts and was released from jail. Peter later claimed that the factory experience nearly destroyed him.
- ④ The story of Peter's childhood reads like the story in one of his novels, forced to work at young age. Peter suffered long hours and unhealthy conditions common in factories in the nineteenth-century England. Memories of his experience haunted him for the rest of his life.
