Read the story and answer the questions.

Once there lived a girl named Narmada. She had a lovely house and a beautiful garden on a top of a hill. She was very happy living there because there were many insects such as butterflies, dragonflies, ants, bees and beetles there. She loved to watch her pet, the baby squirrel chasing butterflies. All these creatures made her garden their permanent home, Narmada took care of them well. But among all, the baby squirrel was her best friend.

One day, the baby squirrel had a fall and fell sick, so everyone became sad as it lay upwards keeping its eyes closed. She sprinkled a little water on its eyes, but it did not respond.

Narmada was so worried and she fed her little pet with some milk. She stroked its head until it fell asleep.

Then she murmured in a soft voice, "You, my baby squirrel, get well soon. If you hear me, please open your eyes". A few minutes passed by. The baby squirrel opened its eyes. It looked at her eyes as to say, "Thank you for taking good care of me". Narmada held the baby squirrel, kissed its forehead and said, "A friend in need is a friend indeed".

Captions

- A – Finally, a vacant table B – Disappointing news C – An ideal place for guests
D – Sudden Invasion E – Long wait for the service F – A pleasant Experience

(1)	It was my birthday last week and I decided to celebrate it with a few friends of mine. I chose a homely place in a quiet part of the town. It is one of my favourite restaurants because the food there is cheap, and it provides an excellent service. It is hardly crowded, and many people did not book a table for the occasion.	<input type="text"/>
(2)	When we came to the restaurant, I was surprised because it was completely full. There wasn't a single table free. One of the waiters recognized me and explained the situation. "A party of tourists have come unexpectedly, and the place is full."	<input type="text"/>
(3)	The waiter pointed to a table far behind. "The people occupying that table are just about to leave" he said. "Just hold on and you will find a place there." He was right. Twenty minutes later, the people occupying a table in the middle paid their bill and left the hotel. I got my friends there and we all sat down.	<input type="text"/>
(4)	Unfortunately, our table was almost out of sight. We tried to get the attention of the waiter who sent us there, but he, like all the other waiters, was busy with the party of tourists. Forty five minutes later, once the tourists finished their meal, the waiter appeared at our table and he looked exhausted.	<input type="text"/>
(5)	A few moments later the waiter came back to our table. We could tell from his face that he had bad news for us. Apologizing to us he informed that there was no fish or meat left. "All we can offer you is" he said, "one omelette each".	<input type="text"/>

Test 15

Read the following text and answer the questions given below.

The World's Oldest First Grader

- ① On January 12, 2004, Kimani Himani Maruge knocked on the door of the primary school in his village in Kenya. It was the first day of his school, and he was ready to start learning. The teacher let him in and gave him a desk. The new student sat down with the rest of the first graders- six and seven year old boys and girls. However, Kimani Maruge was not an ordinary first grader. He was 84 years old, the world's oldest first grader.
- ② In 2003, when the Kenyan government began offering free primary education to everyone and Maruge wanted an education, too. However, it wasn't always easy to Maruge to attend school like other children. But with the help of his school principal, Jane Obinchu, he was able to stay in school.
- ② Maruge was a motivated and successful student. In fact, he was one of the top five students in his first grade class. In the second grade, Maruge became a prefect in his school. Over the years, Maruge studied Swahili, English and Mathematics. He wanted to use his education to read religious books and to study veterinary medicine.
- ④ In 2005, Maruge flew in a plane for the first time in his life he travelled to the New York City, where he gave a speech at the United Nations. He spoke about the importance of education and asked for help to educate the people of Kenya. Maruge also wanted to improve primary education for children in Africa.
- ⑤ Maruge died in 2009, at the age of 89. However, his story lives on. The 2010 movie 'The First Grader' showed Maruge's amazing fight to get an education. Many older Kenyans decided to start school after seeing 'The First Grader'. One of those 19 year old Thoma Litei said, 'I knew that it was not too late. I wanted to read and to know more language, so I came to learn'. That is why it is important for his story to be known.
